Dan Vos Construction Wins the Tenth Annual Michigan Contractor of the Year Award

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., October 18, 2019—The American Subcontractors Association of Michigan (ASAM) celebrated its tenth annual Michigan Contractor of the Year Awards (MCOY) last night. This year's award was presented to Dan Vos Construction; this is their fifth time winning. The MCOY recognizes general contractors and construction managers with a track record of best practices, professionalism, and collaboration within the subcontracting community.

“West Michigan trade-contractor votes are in, and Dan Vos Construction Company has walked away with the MCOY for their exceptional level of professionalism and ethics,” said Steven Coates, ASAM President. “Congratulations to their entire organization for promoting collaboration and teamwork, and setting the bar for other contractors to meet.”

Dan Vos Construction Company believes that building relationships through honest communication and providing outstanding service are as important as the projects they construct. Their tagline “Building for Life” means their construction has purpose, quality and durability. The company serves people and enhances life, while maintaining long-term relationships with customers, trade contractors and employees.

The event was held at Frederik Meijer Gardens & Sculpture Park with nearly five hundred in attendance. There were eight 2019-2020 MCOY nominees in total; the 1st Runner Up Award was given to Pioneer Construction and the 2nd Runner Up Award to Elzinga & Volkers Construction Professionals. John Ratzenberger—star of Cheers, voice of Pixar and advocate of subcontractors and the trades—was Keynote speaker; he delivered an inspiring and entertaining presentation.
